

In recognition of your commitment to providing affordable housing in the City of Oakland and Alameda County

Saturday, May 20, 2017

Owner Appreciation Day, May 20, 2017 was one of the many Affordable Housing Week events sponsored by EBHO (East Bay Housing Organization) and produced through a partnership between Oakland Housing Authority and Eden I&R. It was an opportunity for local landlords to learn about the new Section 8 incentive programs through the Oakland Housing Authority and Eden I&R's rental listing service. There were also many local vendors at the event providing useful information and a chance to market themselves. Over one hundred landlords attended and were excited about the new incentives.
